Chief Information Officer Awarded High Impact IT Leader at the Los Angeles IT Leadership Forum

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced Chief Information Officer Aman Bhullar has been awarded the High Impact IT Leader at the Los Angeles IT Leadership Forum.

Assembled by and for government agencies, the Los Angeles IT Leadership Forum is made up of key government IT executives and industry specialists from throughout the region. The annual forum is the premier event for senior-level and upcoming technology leaders.

“There is no doubt that Information Technology plays a vital role in how our office conducts business and how the public, our community, receives their essential services,” said Dean Logan. “I am proud of Aman and the entire IT Bureau for their dedication, expertise, and willingness to break barriers and put the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk on the cutting edge of government technology.”

More information on the Los Angeles Leadership Forum can be found on their website.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible, and transparent manner.
